

BUILDING RESILIENCE IN RURAL COMMUNITIES SPEAKER SERIES

Major disasters are occurring at an alarming rate and Vermonters are calling for action. In response to the extreme weather events Vermont faced in 2023, Rebuild by Design released the Atlas of Disaster: Vermont, highlighting 17 federally declared disasters and advocating for long-term infrastructure funding. Join us for an educational series to equip legislators and communities with knowledge for equitable climate adaptation.

Session #1: Navigating VT Climate Risks & Building Resilience in Rural Communities

Thurs. 12/5
12 - 1:30pm
Zoom

Topics Include:

- VT Climate Risks
- Designing Collaborative Outreach Processes
- Centering Environmental Justice Communities
- Key Strategies for Rural Resilience

Topics Include:

- Flood Insurance 101
- Housing Affordability & Home Protections
- Best Practices for Housing Buyouts/Moving

Session #2: Flood Insurance & Housing

Tues. 12/17
12 - 1:30pm
Zoom

Session #3: Regional Planning & Leveraging Nature as Climate Infrastructure

Mon. 1/27
12 - 1:30pm
Zoom

Topics Include:

- Managing Upstream Flooding & Highlighting Regional Planning Efforts
- Supporting State-Level Flood Resilience
- Strategies in the U.S.
Leveraging Nature as Climate Infrastructure